OWNER DOES NOT NEED CHAUFFEUR'S LICENSE.

Frankfort.—In applying for a chauffeur's license Claude Sanders, of Fleming County, stated that he had never been convicted for any offense except operating his own automobile without a license. This conviction, he said, was in a magistrate's court in Fleming County. Commissioner of Motor Vehicles Byars notified Sanders that it was not necessary for an owner of an automobile to take a chauffeur's license.

WILL VOTE ON SUFFRAGE IN OHIO
Petitions filed Tuesday at the State Woman Suffrage headquarters insure the 103,000 signatures necessary for a vote on the suffrage issue in Ohio this fall, with 3,000 over. This represents the largest petition by men for woman suffrage on record. Ohio will make the seventh State that is to make a vote on the suffrage question this fall.

THE PRACTICAL PHILOSOPHER.

(American Machinist.)
The selection of the right type of man for each job is not easy. Each man must formulate his own rules for handling men which will vary in every case. Great commanders are born, not made, but careful study of personality will not injure the greatest commander.
Buying machine tools is much like buying dogs. The man who starts out without knowing what breed he wants is apt to get a mongrel, and gets neither satisfactory results nor does he give satisfaction to the salesman. "Know what you want" is a good motto to learn before entering the salesroom.
Trifles make a big difference in the practical use of tools in a shop; a lathe with an even number of teeth in the head gear permits the easy rotation of the spindle in fractions of a turn, while one with an uneven number of teeth is difficult to handle; yet these small points are often overlooked.
Part-time schools for young boys are in vogue in many places and are doing much good; but they do not benefit the older boys and men whose age prohibits their attendance at these schools. It is suggested that the spare time during the noon hour be employed for the instruction of aspiring workmen.
Any man has respect for another man's real knowledge and the intimate connection which the automobile driver has with his intricate and elaborate machine gives him a real respect for the machinist who produced that mechanism. The automobile has brought the machinist into everyday life and has broken down another barrier between classes.

SPORTY NEW ORLEANS.

OHIO'S SERPENT MOUND

One of the Historic Mysteries of the World—When and By Whom Was It Made?

(West Union (O.) Record.)

We spent one day last week at the Serpent Mound and again viewed this splendid work of antiquity. The park is in fine condition, considering the continued drought, and Superintendent Wal-tineet drouth, and Supt. Wallace is certainly the right man for the place. This mound is so familiar to Record readers that any comment we might make would be superfluous. The Mound Builder literally left "foot-prints on the sands of time," but their trail leads only to oblivion. He bequeathed to the succeeding ages no written records, and his temples tell no tales as to their time or purpose. His only answer to every conceivable guess concerning his origin, age and destiny is his unbroken silence. Professor Putnam, to whom is due the credit of the restoration and preservation of the mound, says in the account of his first visit: "The graceful curves throughout the whole length of this singular effigy give it a strange life-like appearance; as if a huge serpent, slowly uncoiling itself and creeping silently and steadily along the crest of the hill, was about to seize the oval within its extended jaws. In the afternoon, when the lights and shades are brought out into strong relief, the effect is indeed strange and weird; and this effect is heightened still more when the full moon lights up the scene and the stillness is broken by the 'who-who-who, who-hoo' of the unseen bird of night. Reclining on one of the huge folds of this gigantic serpent, as the last rays of the sun gleaming from the distant hills, cast their long shadows over the valley, I mused on the probabilities of the past; and there seemed to come to me a picture as of a distant time, of a people with strange customs, and with it came the demand for an interpretation of this mystery. The unknown must become known."

WHOLE SCHOOL SYSTEM HIT

Educators Close Convention at St. Paul.—Teachers Are Inefficient, Says Speaker.

St. Paul, Minn.—A somewhat listless session of the National Educational Association was suddenly enlivened when Dr. J. H. Francis, superintendent of schools, Los Angeles, Cal., vigorously attacked the present school system, denounced the inefficiency of the average teacher and characterized as soul wreckers "certain powerful interests that are blocking all forms of educational progress."
Criticism of his "sensationalism" was uttered by many leading educators, but storms of applause which interrupted him at every sentence were indicative of the general attitude of the delegates.
The annual convention closed after a brief session devoted to a discussion of the needs of the public school.
Nabby-Pamby schools.
"Our public schools of today," said Dr. Francis, "are nabby-pamby places to which we go because it is the custom, and some of us become good citizens in spite of them."
"The purpose of education is to make us scholarly enough so that we may separate ourselves from the common herd. Teachers who train a child to believe that he cannot be respectable unless he is a professional man are a menace to society."
"Schools are all wrong, because they give the credit to the captains of things, not to stokers. When the teaching force is allowed to make its own judgments and stand on these judgments we will have different boys and girls."

"We are dragging out the souls of our boys and girls by telling them to learn so many pages a day of matter that means nothing to them in practical life."

The hall rang with applause when Dr. Francis shouted:

"God bless the girl who refuses to study algebra—a study that has caused many girls to lose their souls."

Continuing, he said:

"Give our girls courses in costume designing instead of mathematics, and life and art and morality and goodness will mean more to them. There is more art in one well-selected and well-made garment than in all the art galleries of Europe."

He added that nine-tenths of our immorality is caused by damage done to boys and girls by teachers.

Experimental Schools.

Use of the permanent fund of the association for the establishment of 12 demonstration and experimental schools in various parts of the country under the management of a committee headed by the United States Commissioner of Education was advocated by Georgia Alexander, supervising principal of schools of Indianapolis. Her proposal received a partial indorsement from United States Commissioner P. H. Clayton, who contended, however, that the Federal Government should provide a fund of $2,000,000 a year to promote and maintain experimental schools.

NINTH ANNUAL BLUE GRASS FAIR

OPENS AT LEXINGTON MONDAY, AUGUST 3—BEST FAIR IN MIDDLE WEST.

SIX BIG DAYS AND NIGHTS

Numerous Attractions, Including Thaviu's Band and Concert Company—Kline's Greater Shows.

Lexington, Ky.—Since its organization in 1906, the Blue Grass Fair has taken full rank with the largest and the best state fairs and expositions of the country. It has very justly become known as the largest horse show in the world. It is the only fair which offers a full quota and a classification for breeding classes of the three great breeds of American horses as well as show classes, simplified and arranged in a manner which makes their distinction clear. Pitched on a larger and more extensive scale than ever before, with the certainty of increased interest on account of various added features, this year's fair promises to eclipse all previous records.
Numerous additions and improvements have been made in the matter of show rings and amusement features have been secured of a kind and to an extent that justify the belief that the fair will not only prove more valuable than ever to the live stock interests of Kentucky, but also more attractive to those who visit it. In addition to the weanling and yearling divisions, five stakes are offered in the show classes for saddle horses.

Attractive Program Each Day.

One of the most attractive programs for the week will be on Wednesday, when the classes for Standard bred horses will be shown.
In addition to the cash premiums offered and seasons to the leading horses in service are donated by various owners and should attract the attention of the entire world.

The fair will open on Monday, August 3rd, at 1 p. m., when an attractive racing program has been arranged. Interesting show rings will be seen, and Thaviu's Great Band and Concert Co., with some of the best soloists and grand opera singers known to the musical world will be here.

Six singers in costume will be heard in front of the grand stand every evening and there is a great treat in store for the music loving public of the Blue Grass region.

On Tuesday, the 4th, the big mule show, always a most interesting feature of the Blue Grass Fair, will be shown, and Herefords cattle will also be seen.

Various classes for sheep and swine will be judged in the pens, and the poultry and pigeons will be judged in the poultry house.

Great show rings in other classes, music by Thaviu's Band will help fill out the day's program.

On Wednesday morning the breeding classes for standard bred horses as mentioned above, classes for Jack stock, etc., will be shown in front of the grand stand.

Famous Blue Grass Stake Wednesday.

In the afternoon the famous Blue Grass Stake for five-gaited saddle horses, which always produces the best seen in the world. This stake always gives us a spirited and exciting contest, and brings out a large field.

Thursday is always a great day and an extra program has been arranged. The forenoon will be taken up with the breeding classes for American saddle horses, the prizes for which are particularly rich and desirable and certain to bring about a magnificent show.

The classes for Short Horn Cattle, which always produces a show for short horns, will be well worth the trip of many miles to those interested in beef cattle, which will be shown in front of the grand stand. In the afternoon will be witnessed the Kentucky Stake for five-gaited saddle horses and an excellent program for racing, varied show classes for roadsters, three and five-gaited horses and fine harness horses.

Friday morning will be devoted to Jersey Cattle, which is always a good show, as the best herds in the State meet here.

In the afternoon the Shetland Ponies, in addition to racing and a varied program of show classes.

Thoroughbreds Saturday.

Saturday is always known as Thoroughbred Day, when we see rings which bring together many of the most noted thoroughbred horses from the greatest nurseries in Kentucky. In addition to cash premiums, seasons to such great horses as Ballot, Sain, Jack Atkins, Fair Play, Trap Rock, Water-vale, Stalwart, Nasturtium and others are offered which insure the best show ever given in this department.

The afternoon program is one of the most interesting of the entire week, as it includes all championships in which final contests occur between winners of the individual classes during the preceding days of the fair. The rule governing these classes requires all animals eligible to show in these rings, or forfeit money won in the previous shows, and this rule will be strictly adhered to, thereby assuring large fields and affording the public the opportunity of seeing the winners brought together.

The week promises to be not only a gala one in Lexington, but a record-breaking one in the history of the Blue Grass Fair.

Speed Program.
Running races and harness races to be given each day.
Cup races to be given each day by the Gentlemen's Driving Club at Blue Grass Fair.

An excellent speed program has been arranged for the Blue Grass Fair at Lexington, week of August 3rd to 8th.

On each of the six days there will be running races and harness racing on every day but Saturday. The two-year old stake to be contested during the week, closed with 20 entries, including nearly all the best in training in Kentucky. This race has always been one of the best races of the year for two-year-olds, and this should prove no exception to the rule.

Rules of the National Trotting Association will govern the races. In addition there will be pony races, mule races, novelty races and others to be announced later.

LUKE McLUKE SAYS

A man's foot is the only thing that is uglier than a woman's elbow.

You never realize how much swearing lessons pain until you try to swear off swearing.

It is all right to have a good time. But when a girl goes joy riding with a fellow she should insist upon his taking something besides a case of beer and a bottle of booze along as chaperones.

What has become of the old-fashioned woman who used to hit her husband with the rolling pin?

Even when a Princess has a blister on her heel and a corn on each little toe you could never get her to admit that her shoes are too tight.

The reason why a lot of girls pose around on dry land at the bathing beaches is because their complexions are waterproof, but their bathing suits are not.

A maiden who is built like a panther thinks it is very vulgar to perspire. But a corn-fed girl either has to sweat or bust.

If the prohibitionists were fair they would fight intemperance. Lots of men who never touch liquor get drunk on food two or three times a week.

There are lots of married men who are not bigamists who have one wife too many.

What has become of the old-fashioned man who wore a vest all summer? A Reformer is a gink who legalizes what he likes to do and prohibits what other people like to do.

Prize fighters are not the only people who shake hands before they start in to hammer the stuffing out of each other.

The old-fashioned man who used to believe the wrestling game was a fake now has a son who does the catch-as-catch-can Tango every night in the year.

Many a married man who comes home to a poodle, a canary and a flock of gold fish calls his wife "Mother."

When your sweetheart says "No" it may mean anything. But when Friend Wife says "no" it means "NO".

Don't be a knocker. The reason you are so quick to recognize the faults of others is because they are exactly like your own.
